11.02.2003

Shri G.P. Kurre, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Ranbir Singh, G.A. for the State.

Heard.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner, the Court is not inclined to entertain this writ petition.

Admittedly, the petitioner had given his option for allocation to the State of Madhya Pradesh. His option has been accepted and consequently he has been allocated to the State of Madhya Pradesh. He has now approached this Court for issuance of appropriate directions commanding the respondents not to relieve him till the end of April 2003. Since the petitioner has been allocated in accordance with the option, the question of any interference does not arise.

It is then contended that the petitioner may not be relieved as the academic session is coming to an end and his children are to appear in the forthcoming examinations and the order requiring him to join in the State of M.P. may be deferred at least till the end of April, 2003 or else his children will suffer. This, of course, can be considered by the appropriate Authority if a proper representation is made to it in that regard. Accordingly, the petition is disposed of with a direction that if a representation for deferring his joining at the place of posting is made to the concerned Authority within ten days from today, the said Authority shall consider and dispose it of by taking a sympathetic view in the matter.
